Visionaries in Prevention Annual Luncheon | Oct. 22, 2024

Advancing efforts to address and prevent domestic violence is the path that the Jamie Kimble Foundation for Courage stands on. Centered on an intersectional approach, work recognizes overlapping experiences based on gender, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, age, and other factors. Our efforts to educate and bring awareness of this epidemic to youth and young adults are made through our initiatives Teens For Courage (TFC), Voices For Courage (VFC), and Parents For Courage. The 2024 luncheon will honor two individuals who continue to make great strides in prevention. Congresswoman Alma Adams will be honored for her visionary work preventing domestic violence. U.S. Olympian and Charlottean Anna Cockrell will be honored for her work and stance on mental health wellness.
